

Sattelite radio is the future just as TV in the 1940's and cable in the 1980's. Just because a signal bounces off of a sattelite instead of directly from an early twentieth century technology antenae doesn't mean it should be restricted.